BY J. L. PENNINGTON.

GEN. HOWARD IN WILMINGTON.
He Addresses Both Races.

[From the Journal of the 16th.]

GENERAL H. WARD'S SPEECH.—At half-past 7, on Saturday evening a very respectable audience had assembled at the Theatre to hear an address by Maj. Gen. O. O. Howard, Chief of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen and abandoned Lands, delivered by request of influential citizens of the town. The address was made in a conversational style and was well received by the audience. The General commenced his remarks by stating that he was with the army of Gen Sherman, when he received orders to report to Washington, for what he was not informed, but received the intimation on his way, that he was to be charged with the organization of the Bureau of Freedmen, authorized by an act of Congress. He then went on to speak of the difficulties and arduous labors he had experienced in the organization of this bureau, and gave a full explanation of its objects and purposes. He accepted this position with no intention of doing injustice to the white man or the black man. The organization of the bureau was absolutely necessary. Four millions of negroes had been suddenly emancipated, and they must be taken care of and provided for. If there had been any mismanagement or negligence on the part of subordinate officers, they alone were to be censured and not the Bureau. The General then spoke of the social relations of the negro. He also stated that he was a soldier by education and profession, that he had never entered the politics arena, and did not now intend to touch any points political in their character. He endeavored to prove that unless their right to testify in the courts was recognized, their freedom was a mockery. He was unwilling to leave them for protection to public sentiment. He believed that the best friend of the negro ought to be, at least, their former masters, but that he could not rely on the popular feeling at the South, nor at the North alone, for a guarantee of the rights of this large class of our people. They must be protected by law, and the sooner the South acknowledge this fact the sooner they will be restored to their constitutional rights in the Union. Without the restraints of law their freedom was only nominal.

The General was very mild and conciliatory in the expression of his views. He entertained no feelings of ill will or bitterness towards the people of the South, said that his association had been nearly as much with Southern men as with Northern men; that he had some knowledge of the institution of slavery and did not credit all the reports of brutality that were circulated in the North, nor did he believe all the polished stories of its mildness that emenated from the South. Upon the whole, the remarks of the General were characterized by that liberality of sentiment which will not fail to gain him friends and admirers wherever he may go in the South, even among those, and they are many, perhaps the majority, who cannot coincide with all his views. The attention with which he was listened to is an evidence of the appreciation by his hearers, of the candid and honest manner in which he delivered himself, if not an approval of all his views.

GEN. HOWARD'S ADDRESS TO THE COLORED PEOPLE.—The Front Street M. E. Church was densely crowded last night with colored people, who had congregated to listen to an address by Gen. O. O. Howard, of the Freedmen's Bureau. The General's speech was full of instruction, and if they will only act in accordance with the precepts set before them, they must necessarily advance as a race. They were urged upon to be virtuous, truthful and industrious, mindful of the obligations of the marriage contract, and polite to their former masters as well as to each other. They were informed that their freedom was acknowledged by the State Convention now in session, and that it remained with them to prove whether they were worthy to enjoy this great boon.

The General did not touch on the suffrage question, but advised, as the best course to arrive at political equality, a life of labor, striving at the same time to educate and enlighten themselves and their children; that education alone would fit them to enjoy these privileges. He dwelt on this point at considerable length, endeavoring to show them the great influence exerted in society by education. He then spoke of the objects of the Bureau, of which he was Chief; that it was not intended to support them in idleness, but that it was estalished to assist them in transition from slavery to freedom, and that those who were purposely idle, relying upon the assistance of the Bureau would be awfully disappointed.

The General also spoke of the great importance of harmony and good feeling existing between the races, and remarked that when this was effected the Bureau would be abolished.

These are not all the points touched upon by the General, at the Methodist Church, but such as are here omitted will be found in the brief sketch of his remarks made at the Theatre on Saturday evening.

The Elections.

An official and authorized announcement of Hon. William W. Holden for Governor appears in the Herald this morning.

The people will now be called upon to approve or disapprove the reconstruction policy of President Johnson. That approval or disapproval will be manifested by the support given at the approaching election to the president's agent in this State. It is useless to deny that there are indications of opposition to Mr. Holden's election in this part of the state. That opposition if it shall manifest itself more openly, will be based upon the past political record of the gubernatorial candidate. It will be urged by those men who are not fully satisfied with the termination of the great struggle of the past four years, but are yet at heart hostile to the national government. The extent and power of this discontented and hostile class is yet to be determined. We are satisfied that it is quite insignificant; that the people of this state are, as a body, heartily loyal to-day. This fact will be illustrated at the election, when the man of the president's choice shall call for the suffrages of the people. In the western and central portions of the state the provisional Governor will meet with no opposition. He will not receive sufficient opposition in the eastern counties to affect the result of the election. But should he receive any organized opposition that fact will be recorded as an evidence of the lingering enmity of the people to the government of the United States. It is our earnest desire that no such evidence should go to the government. It is our wish that the administration at Washington should be persuaded that the protestations of loyalty by our people are not mere words. Should the government be as firmly convinced as we are of the integrity and fidelity of the people of North Carolina to loyal principles, the work of restoration would be virtually accomplished. But the general government is not so convinced, and hence the doubts that exist as to the admission of our members to the floor of Congress.

Now let the people, in the approaching election, as a matter of policy, expediency, or whatever else it may be termed, lay aside all differences. Let them ratify the acts of the convention so far as they are to be submitted: let them endorse the President's policy as executed by his agent the provisional Governor, by unanimously electing that agent Governor; let them select unconditional union men for members of Congress; let them elect a state legislature of similar stripe, and the government will have so convincing a proof of our loyalty that there can and will be no objection to our full restoration to the rights and privileges of a state of the Union.

Some men who are neither political nor personal friends to the provisional Governor tell as perhaps with a great deal of truth, that this man or that man is quite as loyal as Mr. Holden. Grant that this may be so, and what is gained? These very men who are thus urged for opposition candidates were pressed before the President for appointment as provisional Governor. But the President chose to determine that he had more confidence in Mr. Holden's loyalty than in theirs. Shall we question the President's right to so determine? And having so determined he will naturally count upon the support given to the man he has designated as the leader of the loyal sentiment of the state as an indication of the measure of our loyalty. The question is not whether somebody else, in our opinion, is more loyal than Mr. Holden. The President has his own ideas of loyalty. Other people have their ideas. But as between the two the President's will be most apt to prevail. Mr. Davis might claim that he is and has always been a loyal man, and his friends will back the claim. The President says he is a traitor and a rebel. The President's conclusion is the one that must prevail in the matter. So in the selection of our candidates now. The malcontents insist that some of the unpardoned among us are the most loyal men. They may be the most loyal from our standpoint, but from the President's standpoint they are not loyal at all, and all our assertions will not affect the matter one iota.

Therefore it is that we ask the people to submit cheerfully to the President's choice in this matter; and so hasten the day of our complete restoration, and the return of civil law and order.—Wilmington Herald.

FROM FORTRESS MONROE.—Preparations are being made to remove Mr. Clay and Mr. Mitchel from the casemates they are occupying and have occupied since their imprisonment to Carroll Hall. Each will have a room by himself and on the same floor with that occupied by Mr. Davis. It is probable the proposed change will be made within a few days.—There will be no diminution in the number of the guard placed over the prisoners. At present half of the guard—the entire detail is seventy-two, besides officers—keep watch over Mr. Davis. Regard for the health and comfort of the State prisoners has alone instigated this change in their quarters. And this kindly regard in matters of food, in the allowance of daily out-door exercise, in the medical attendance they receive, in the reading privileges accorded them, and in all the varied comforts permitted them, have served to keep them all in excellent health, and in fine as well as grateful spirits.

Gen. Baker, chief detective of the War Department, is about to publish a full history of the records of the secret service of the Government, not only embracing the proceedings of his bureau, but those appertaining to all officers belonging to the detective service of the Government.

—A Boston correspondent of the Rochester(N. Y.) Democrat writes thus about the tomb of Daniel Webster in Marshfield: "When the son of Fletcher Webster was buried the other day, his grandfather's coffin was again opened, and his remains found in perfect preservation. There is a secret about it; but those features will never be seen again.

—"Returns have been received by Dr. Jas. Williams, Secretary Union Committee, most of which are substantially official, from every county in Ohio. From these, as they now stand, the majority for Gen. Cox amounts to 28,287. The average majority of the State ticket is over 30,000.

—Three tender Yankee girls were weighed at the Springfield arsenal, an aggregate of 557 pounds.

So far as heard from, the election in Indiana shows Union gains in the darkest corners of the State. The Legislature will not be changed.

The Charlestonians are holding out inducements to Northern emigrants and capital. South Carolina is coming to her senses.

A "Washington correspondent" states that the Wirz trial will cost the Government upwards of $1,000,000, but he does not go into particulars, except to mention the item of $3,100 expense in providing one witness for the defence.

The receipts of oil at Pittsburg since the opening of navigation in March last, amount to 588,888 barrels. These receipts are in excess of those for the corresponding time last year. The price per barrel has averaged about $8.

Vallandigham made a speech at Dayton, Ohio, one day last week, in which he virtually admitted the existence of the order known as the Sons of Liberty, and what is more, that the main idea of it was the establishment of a Northwestern confederacy.

—Miss Harriet Lane, niece of ex-President Buchanan, will be married shortly to Henry E. Johnson, a wealthy banker of Baltimore. Johnson was one of the political martyrs of Fort Warren, in the early part of the war, for running the blockade to Richmond.

—John P. Hale, the new minister to Spain, has halted at Paris, being afraid to go further on account of the cholera.

—The Press of Texas speak in general disapproval of the letter of Mr. Reagan on the subject of negro suffrage.

—Sturdevant, who was elected Mayor of Richmond, Virginia, last spring, has concluded to resign.

—General Sherman had a delightful illustration of the hospitality of St. Louis, having had three horses presented to him there in a single week.

THE CITY.

☞Persons in city and country are requested, at all times, to furnish us verbal or written information of any events of public interest which may transpire in their neighborhoods, or of which they may have knowledge.

THE CEMETERY.—The condition of this city of the dead is a crying shame and subjects our corporate authorities to the most unkind criticisms from strangers and citizens. We hear that not only is the fence down which encloses the square so as to make it a common thoroughfare, but boys roam through it at will, tearing down pailings, abusing if not breaking monuments. The cows and hogs appear also to have free access to the graves of the beloved departed and unrestrained liberty to pasture and upturn the earth therein.

These things should not be permitted a moment longer than mechanical skill can remedy the evil. We tell the commissioners that their position and duty is quite as high and responsible as members of the legislature, and they can do nothing which will give them a faster hold on popular affection at home than to order at once the necessary repairs about the cemetery.

THE 120TH INDIANA REGIMENT.—We cheerfully comply with the request of a member of the above regiment to insert the following:

RALEIGH, Oct. 21, 1865.

Editor Progress:—I notice in your paper this morning an item stating that the withdrawal of a part of the 28th Michigan regiment will leave the city without troops. Permit me to inform you, and through you the good people of Raleigh, that the 120th Indiana regiment is still in your midst. That you should be unconscious of our presence (while we have encamped within five minutes walk of the capitol building for more than two months) is the highest compliment you could possibly have paid to the discipline of our regiment.

Very truly yours, HOOSIER.

We had no intention, whatever, of ignoring the existence or presence of the 120th when we alluded to the withdrawal of the 28th Michigan. Colonel Kise has a most excellent regiment, and the deportment of officers and men has been such since they have been here as to win largely upon the regard of our citizens. Indiana troops are great favorites here, and we know of no organization that has made a more favorable impression than the 120th.

We learn that for the present this regiment will perform the garrison duty for this post.

PREFERRED A SIDEBOARD.—It is said that a few days since a venerable colored woman visited the freedmen's bureau in this city and demanded to be informed if it was the place where they kept the freed men's bureaus. The clerks in Col. Whittlesey's employ are extremely polite, and one of the number, who has a high relish for good jokes, replied affirmatively. The anthracite feminine thereupon approached him in a confidential manner and whispering, said: "I'se come for my buro, though I prefers a sideboard, as den I can lock my wittals up from de pawper niggars who wisits me, but wont arn money to buy 'wisions.

The men of pens exploded with laughter and after having had the matter fully explained to her, old Sally left for her home in Johnson county, from which place she had walked to obtain her bureau.

THE MEETING SATURDAY.—A meeting of the citizens of Raleigh was held in the court-house Saturday afternoon, where, among other things, the subjoined resolutions were adopted:

Resolved. That we hereby take pleasure in the expression of our unreserved confidence in President Johnson and the policy of his administration—that we regard him as the best friend of the South, not because of any sectional proclivities he may have for the South, but because he is a national man, willing and anxious to do justice to all sections of the country, and justice is all the South asks for, and that as patriotic men we feel it to be our duty to sustain him in his onerous labors in re-organizing and restoring the Union.

Resolved, That we have unabated confidence in Governor Holden, that we appreciate his efforts and his labors in behalf of the interests of the State and the people thereof; that believing he has the full and entire confidence of President Johnson, and that he is laboring in accord with the President in the effort to restore North Carolina to her position in the Union, and that we regard it as due to patriotism and to our interests to sustain him in the position he now holds, and also to support him for election as civil governor.

Capt. J. Q. DeCarteret then offered the following, which was adopted;

Resolved, That having entire confidence in the worth, patriotism and conservatism of Col. J. P. H. Russ, we respectfully recommend him for a seat in the next Congress of the United States from this district. J. R. HARRISON, Ch'mn.

W. H. FINCH, Sec'ry.

DAILY PROGRESS.

RALEIGH, N. C.

MONDAY, OCT. 23, 1865.

NATIONAL UNION ANDREW JOHNSON TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR:

WILLIAM W. HOLDEN,

OF WAKE COUNTY.

Election Thursday, 9th November, 1865.

FOR CONGRESS:

FOURTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT,

COL. J. P. H. RUSS,

OF WAKE COUNTY.

"Every dollar of the debt created to aid the rebellion against the United States should be repudiated finally and forever —ANDREW JOHNSON to GOV. HOLDEN.

Jonathan Worth, and the "Sentinel," the organ of the disaffected faction that brought him forward for Governor, are in favor of taxing the people to pay the rebel State debt.

Public Meeting in Johnston.

There was a large public meeting at Smithfield on Saturday last, at which Col. J. P. H. Russ was nominated for Congress, T. D. Snead for Senate, and J. R. Coats and Benj. Godwin for the Commons. Colonel Russ, Hon. Josiah Turner and other gentlemen addressed the meeting.

Candidate in the Second Congressional District.

As will be seen by announcement elsewhere in this paper, R. H. Lehman, Esq., of Newbern, is a candidate for Congress in the second district. Mr. Lehman has been a consistent Union man, has never participated in the rebellion, can take the oath, and if elected will make an efficient representative. The people of the second district ought to elect him by all means.

Ordinances of the Convention.

We commence to-day the publication of the Ordinances passed by the State Convention at the session which has just closed, and shall continue them until all are published. These ordinances will be valuable for reference, and we advise our subscribers to preserve the papers containing them.

ALL the secession leaders are for Mr. Worth—not that Mr. Worth is a secessionist, we make no such charge—but he was the best and all they could get. They tried the prominent gentlemen in the convention, one after another, and could get no one else to oppose Gov. Holden, and as a last chance and forlorn hope they picked up Mr. Worth. The fact, however, that the secession leaders put him forward and are to support him, ought to concentrate all the Union men of the State on Gov. Holden. The election of Gov. Holden will be a Union triumph and will be so regarded, while that of Mr. Worth will be a secession victory, and will be so regarded at Washington and throughout the North. The election of Gov. Holden will put us back in the Union, while it is almost morally certain that the election of Mr. Worth will keep us out.

THERE were no nominations made at the county meeting held here last Saturday. The meeting passed resolutions endorsing President Johnson, Gov. Holden and Col. Russ. We learn that a number of prominent gentlemen are expected to meet here on Wednesday next to try to form a Union ticket for Wake.

HON. R. P. DICK, one of the delegates to the State Convention from Guilford, took his seat only a few days before the adjournment of the body, having been detained at home by sickness. It is much to be regretted that the State was deprived of his services at such a time, but we rejoice at his restoration to health.

The Sore Headed Faction.

The Standard says:

Jonathan Worth was nominated by a sore head faction in the convention. All the true Union men, who desired harmony advised him not to run. But others who wanted office and preferment, sacrificed the harmony of the people, in this solemn hour, for personal aggrandizement. This conduct led to the war, can it restore us? Must we not turn over a new leaf and let the office seek the man and not the man seek the office.

The Salisbury Banner copies the above and says:

Just as we expected. A clique of broken down politicians have hoisted the name of Jonathan Worth for Governor, merely to create a schism in the ranks of the true Union men of the State. They know that their tenure of office depends upon success in demagogueism. If they can succeed in deceiving the people into the belief that Governor Holden does not possess the confidence of the President, and that Jonathan Worth does, there is a hope that they will come in for some of the spoils of office. This is what they desire. They should not succeed. If the people will but look to their interest and the interests of the State, they will be beaten and scattered, as enemies to the government.

Governor Holden, undoubtedly, possesses the confidence of the President, Andrew Johnson, who is our friend. His great abilities eminently qualify him for the responsible position of Chief Magistrate of the State. He can do more towards securing for us an early readmission into the Union, than any other man in North Carolina, because of the relation which he sustains to the President, and of his well known opposition to the defunct Confederate government.

Then, we have no hesitancy in saying that, if the people would hasten the return of civil laws, of prosperity and permanent peace, they should vote for Governor Holden in opposition to all candidates of whatever professions. They will thus show their appreciation of the statesmanlike policy of President Johnson, and subserve their own interest and that of our good old State.

—The vote in favor of negro suffrage in Colorado, as compared with that in favor of the constitution, was as one to ten only. The pet scheme of the Radicals finds but little favor among the "sovereigns."

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

In the year 1846, the writer embarked in the Drug Business in the city of Philadelphia, and while thus engaged, made several experiments in regard to the most desirable mode of preparing Fluid Extracts. My efforts being successful—the articles being approved and used by the medical faculty—I was desirous of placing them before the public, but hesitated for some time before concluding to resort to newspaper advertising, knowing of the prejudices that existed in the minds of many against using advertised Medicines or Nostrums, but through the advice of friends and those who had used them this objection was overcome.

After 16 years' exertions, commencing in a small way, the popularity of my articles has extended to all parts of the United States, and widely throughout foreign countries—and this in the face of much opposition.—Every means has been resorted to by unprincipled dealers since their merit and success have been known—such as advertising large bottles at less price, censuring all other preparations, and even copying my advertisements—but I am happy to state that out of the many who have resorted to this, none have been successful.

MY OBJECT

in this notice is to make facts known to the public and respectable dealers, believing, after so many years' exertions, that the Druggists will discountenance such proceedings, and that the reputation of my articles may not be damaged by the use of inferior or spurious ones.

Knowing that many may read this article who are unacquainted with me, I append a few remarks from those of my native city, and whose names are known in all parts of the world:

"Being personally acquainted with Mr. H. T. Helmbold, it affords me pleasure in stating I have been most favorably impressed with his energy and integrity, and gratified at his success." WM. WEIGHTMAN,
Firm of Powers & Weightman,
Ninth and Brown Streets, Philadelphia.

[Evening Bulletin, Philadelphia.]

"When on a visit to the city of New York, a few days since, I was induced to call on our old friend and townsman, Mr. H. T. Helmbold, Druggist, 594 Broadway, N. Y. His store is a model—a perfect gem—the handsomest of any kind we have ever had the pleasure of viewing, and so extensive, being 34 feet front, five stories in height, and over 200 feet deep. It indeed affords us much pleasure to know that he has been so successful and it is ample evidence of the merits of his articles—as in our whole business experience we have not known of the success of any articles without merit—advertising merely bringing the name before the people."

[Boston Herald.]

"We do not like to advertise worthless wares, or articles calculated to deceive our readers; and when we see an advertiser like Mr. HELMBOLD, whom we have known for years, gradually extend his advertising from year to year until he becomes the largest advertiser in the United States, we are satisfied that the statements in regard to his articles must be correct."

The writer reluctantly inserts the above, and would not do so were he not a stranger to many; and concludes by stating the names of his articles, and the diseases for which they have been used by many thousands with complete success.

[ADVERTISEMENT.]

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

will cure all diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder. Cures Pain or Weakness in the Back, Strictures, &c; Cures Weak Nerves, Loss of Memory, Trembling, Dimness of Vision.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU

HIGHLY CONCENTRATED.

One bottle equivalent in strength to one gallon of the Syrup of Decoction.

It reaches the seat of the disease immediately, expelling all HUMORS OF THE BLOOD, and

These articles, being of such strength, the dose is exceedingly small. From this fact, it is used in the United States Army Hospitals and public Sanitary Institutions throughout the land.

☞ Sold by all druggists everywhere.

NEW SKIRT FOR 1865.

The Great Invention of the Age in

Hoop Skirts.

J. W. BRADLEY'S NEW PATENT DUPLEX ELLIPTIC, (OR DOUBLE) SPRING SKIRT.

THIS INVENTION CONSISTS OF DUPLEX (OR two) Elliptic Pure Refined Steel Springs, ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most flexible, elastic and durable Spring ever used. They seldom bend or break, like the Single Springs, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful shape more than twice as long as any Single Spring Skirt that ever has or can be made.

The wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any Lady wearing the Duplex Elliptic Skirt will be experienced particularly in all crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm-Chairs, for Promenade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress.

A Lady having Enjoyed the Pleasure, Comfort and Great Convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all other.

The Hoops are covered with 2 ply double twisted thread and will wear twice as long as the Single yarn covering which is used on all Single Steel Hoop Skirts. The three bottom rods on every Skirt are also Double Steel, and twice or double covered to prevent the covering from wearing off the rods when dragging down stairs, stone steps, &c., &c., which they are constantly subject to when in use.

All are made of the new and elegant Corded Tapes, and are the best quality in every part, giving to the wearer the most graceful and perfect shape possible, and are unquestionably the tightest, most desirable, comfortable and economical Skirt ever made.

WEST'S, BRADLEY & CARY, (late J. I. & J. O. West,) Proprietors of the Invention, and sole manufacturers, 97 Chambers and 79 & 81 Reade Streets, New York.

For sale in all first-class stores in this City, and throughout the United States and Canada, Havana de Cuba, Mexico, South America and the West Indies.

BURNING OF THE MUSEUM!

LETTER FROM MR. P. T. BARNUM!

NEW YORK, July 14, 1865.

Messrs. Herring & Co.:

GENTLEMEN—Though the destruction of the American Museum has proved a serious loss to myself and the public, I am happy to verify the old adage that "It's an ill wind that blows nobody good," and, consequently, congratulate you that your well-known safes have again demonstrated their superior fire-proof qualities in an ordeal of unusual severity.

The safe you made for me some time ago was in the office of the Museum, on the second floor, back part of the building, and in the hottest of the fire.

After twenty-four hours of trial it was found among the debris, and on opening it this day has yielded up its contents in very good order—books, papers, policies of insurance, bank bills, all in condition for immediate use, and a noble commentary on the trustworthiness of Herring's Fire-Proof Safes.

PROCLAMATION,

BY WILLIAM W. HOLDEN,

PROVISIONAL GOVERNOR,

TO THE

PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

WHEREAS, A CONVENTION OF THE PEOPLE of North Carolina has been chosen in pursuance of the proclamation of ANDREW JOHNSON, President of the United States, of date May 29th, 1865, under the fourth section of the fourth article of the Constitution of the United States, which guarantees to every State in the Union a republican form of government, for the purpose of enabling the loyal people of said State to organize a State government, whereby justice may be established, domestic tranquility restored, and loyal citizens protected in all their rights of life, liberty and property; and for the purpose also of restoring said State to its Constitutional relations to the Federal Government, by presenting such a republican form of government as will entitle the State to the guarantees of the United States therefor, and its people to protection by the United States against invasion, insurrection and domestic violence: And said Convention having assembled in the City of Raleigh and adopted Ordinances hereinafter set forth, I, WILLIAM W. HOLDEN, Provisional Governor of said State, do hereby proclaim and declare that an election will be held in the various counties of said State on Thursday, the ninth day of November, 1865, as follows:

1st. For the ratification or rejection of "An Ordinance declaring null and void the ordinance of May the 20th, 1861."

2d. For the ratification or rejection of "An Ordinance prohibiting slavery in the State of North Carolina."

3d. For a Governor and members of the General Assembly.

4th. For seven members of the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States.

5th. For Clerks and Sheriffs of the respective counties.

"The elections shall be conducted in accordance with "An Ordinance providing for the election of the members of the General Assembly, to be convened on the fourth Monday of November, eighteen hundred and sixty five, and for electing Representatives in Congress and Governor of the State," ratified by the Convention the tenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and hereinafter set forth; said Ordinance having been passed in pursuance of the proclamation of the President of the United States, of date May 29th, 1865, authorizing said Convention to "prescribe the qualifications of electors, and the eligibility of persons to hold office under the constitution and laws of the State." And also, in conformity with the rules and regulations prescribed by the laws of this State concerning said elections, in force previous to the 20th day of May, 1861.

The people of the State are respectfully urged to maintain order among themselves at the election, and to discountenance appeals, the tendency of which may be to produce ill-feeling and alienation towards the Federal Government. The policy of the government has been liberal and generous towards North Carolina, and no pains should be spared to secure a continuance of this policy.

And the officers in the various counties, appointed by the Provisional Governor, are enjoined to exert themselves to preserve the peace among the people on the day of the election; to act with justice and firmness in all matters that may claim their attention; to see that those entitled to vote are protected in their right of suffrage, and that every manifestation, if such manifestation there should be, of hostility to the Federal Government, is promptly rebuked and repressed.

Done at our city of Raleigh, the 18th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and in the year of the Independence of the United States the ninetieth.

W. W. HOLDEN, Provisional Governor.
By the Governor: W. R. RICHARDSON, Private Sec.

AN ORDINANCE

To give publicity to the Ordinance ordering Elections on the 2nd Thursday in November next:

Be it ordained by the people of North Carolina, in Convention assembled, and it is hereby ordained, That the Provisional Governor be empowered and requested to take such steps as in his judgment may be necessary to make known to the people of North Carolina the ordinances ordering elections, on the 2nd Thursday of November, 1865. [Read three times, and ratified in Convention the 12th day of October, A. D. 1865.]

EDWIN G. READE, President.
JAS. H. MOORE, Secretary of the Convention.
R. C. BADGER, Assistant Secretary.

AN ORDINANCE

Declaring null and void the ordinance of May, eighteen hundred and sixty-one:

Be it declared and ordained by the delegates of the good people of North Carolina, in Convention assembled, and it is hereby declared and ordained, That the ordinance of the Convention of the State of North Carolina, ratified on the twenty-first day of November, seventeen hundred and eighty-nine, which adopted and ratified the Constitution of the United States, and also all acts and parts of acts of the General Assembly, ratifying and adopting amendments to the said Constitution, are now and at all times since the adoption and ratification thereof, have been in full force and effect; notwithstanding the supposed ordinance of the twentieth day of May, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, declaring that the same be repealed, rescinded and abrogated; and the said supposed ordinance is now and at all times hath been null and void. (Ratified in Convention, this seventh day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.)

EDWIN G. READE, President.
JAS. H. MOORE, Secretary of the Convention.
R. C. BADGER, Assistant Secretary.

MR. EDITOR:—THE FOLLOWING IS STRANGE BUT TRUE.

'Twas late last night that I was sitting, in my chamber, lonely, knitting,
Knitting on the same old stocking, I'd commenced before the war;
Knitting carefully, I was feeling—when methought I heard one stealing,
Stealing softly up the stairway, leading to my chamber door.

This I thought, and listened more.

Soon I heard a gentle knocking—hastily I dropped my stocking;
Dropped my knitting—the old stocking I commenced before the war.
Again, and louder, came the rapping—as tho' they thought that I was napping,
Me a napping? Knitting, napping? Me who never—"Ope the door."

This the voice said—"Ope the door!!"

"'Tis Sally's voice"—says I—"'tis Sally, and I know she's got some news,
And I'm powerful glad she's come too, for I most did have the blues.
"Sally," says I, "Sally, howdye?" "What's the news? Do have a chair?"
"Glorious news, my Peggy darling—glorious news from Market Square,"

"From Shepherd's Store in Market Square."

At Shepherd's Store, they've got new shoes—such bran new, laced up, tasseled beauties.
Morocco, kid, and patent leather—Congress gaiters, toe-tipped bootees.
Balmoral, Prunelle and Creole. Mens and womens, boys and girls;
Such a sight it is to behold—they're the cheapest in the world.

The very cheapest in the world.

And Peggy, dear, they've got new hats—military and civilian.
All the style of Frenchy fashion—a la Emp'reur Maximillian.
And I told my husband, Johnny, "throw aside that rusty beaver."
"Go to Shepherd's—market square—get a hat you gay deceiver,

Get a hat, and burn your beaver."

Well, Peg—John went to market square—he's just got back—rigged up so gay,
A bran new suit from top to toe—and cheap as dirt, for ready pay:
And I advise you, Peggy darling—to give what cash you've got to spare,
To your dear Bobby in the morning—and send him straight to Market Square"

To Shepherd's Store, in Market Square.

"I'll do it, Sally dear"—says I—I'll send Bob early in the morn,
I'll send him straight to Shepherd's Store—I will as sure as I am born,
Good-bye, dear Sally! Must you go? Yes—good-bye, Peggy—now take care,
Be sure that Bob finds the right place—'tis SHEPHERD'S STORE, at Market Square.
